Hi Debbie

I see that there was a re-submission of the plans, and subsequent extension of the decision date.

Apart from not including our shed in their plans, I didn't notice any other amendments. With the application being quite lengthy, it's possible I missed something of course.

So, I just wanted to record that our previous comments regarding the height and visual impact of the large barn still stand. I will do the same with the WHPC Planning Committee.

Many thanks
