

PLANNING STATEMENT

223 London Road, Burgess Hill, RH15 9QU

Site & Location

The property occupies a corner site on the west side of London Road, Burgess Hill.

The semi detached two storey building to London Road is separated from the detached two storey storage building at the rear by an enclosed courtyard area.

Proposed Development

Due to the merging and rebranding of the company, the proposal is to replace all of the existing signs in the same size and location. The new signs are to be in the new branded colour scheme.

History

C&T Radmall Funeral Service were established in the Burgess Hill, Horsham and Henfield communities in 1989 and have occupied this site for over 30 years.

Conclusion

The business is long established in the area and at this location, providing an essential service to the community. The business name and colour change will re establish the site as a corner stone of the community.
