Reasons for comment:
Comments:	2 down, 42 to go... The removal of 2 units and some minor scheme amendments do in no way render this proposal acceptable. My previous comments still stand. I also note that the site 'incursion' into the woodland on the SE boundary is still shown - this would appear to be to allow the future connection of of a new road across the adjacent fields to Busses Farm - a previous application for which received a refusal... If not what is it for?

Kind regards
