

working with their Children's Trust partners, may wish to take into account, for example:

- Current progress within an effective, phased programme to meet the sufficiency duty;
- The number of children for whom a local placement is not consistent with their needs and welfare;
- The extent to which local universal services meet needs;
- The state of the local market for accommodation, including the level of demand in a particular locality and the amount and type of supply that currently exists;
- The degree to which they are actively managing this market;
- The resources available to, and capabilities of, accommodation providers (where 'resources' means not just the available funding but also staff and premises, and 'capabilities' includes experience and expertise); and
- The Children's Trust's resources, capabilities and overall budget priorities.
