Hi Peter,

Thank you for your comments. Please see attached as requested with the extent of soft landscaping shown. The hard landscaping to the front driveway will be tarmac to match existing.

Kind Regards,

Hi Ashley,

Thank you for coming back to be on this.

As where these 2 parking spaces are to be in the proposed is currently the front garden and is grass, please can you provide a plan showing the ground at the front and what is to be hardstanding and what will be garden? Will the hardstanding where the existing parking is remain as hardstanding, or be replaced with something such as grass? Additionally, please can you provide detail as to what material the hardstanding would be for the driveway.

Kind regards

Peter
