Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Dears Sirs, I wish to object to the proposed development. It will have an adverse impact on traffic and parking in the area. Pollution levels will also increase. There will be an increased risk of accidents, particularly to pedestrians who already struggle to cross Perrymount Road to access the train station. Some of the pedestrians are school children walking to and from local schools. Whilst I have no objection to another supermarket in Haywards Heath, this specific location already benefits from two supermarkets, Waitrose and Sainsbury's with the latter running a long-term Aldi match price campaign. Why have three competitors so close together?

Yours faithfully,

Kind regards
