Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I'm quite frankly shocked that it's even being considered to build new homes off of West Hoathly/Dunnings Road. The road itself is a busy one, often too busy in-fact, the additional traffic would be a nightmare for not only existing residents, but also for those moving into the 44 new homes. There are new homes being built on Morton Road and a vast number of properties for sale on rightmove. New homes is not what the town needs, it needs GP surgeries, another dentist, additional shops. The town struggles to cope as it is, more residents will be detrimental.

I can't fathom how building on an AONB is even being considered. It's disgusting that we would remove nature to build homes that aren't needed.

Kind regards
