Comments:	I am 60 years old and have lived in this area all my life. As did my parents and their parents. I grew up in a little cottage on the grounds of Sunshine Blind Babies Home on the West Hoathly Rd. It was bad enough when a dump was allowed to happen in one of those fields all those years ago! I do not want to see a load of houses built on an area that holds so many childhood memories. I drive up and down that road every day. It's supposed to be a 30mile an hour speed limit! It's a joke,it's a race track! I've already complained many times that there should be a 'Give way' sign to traffic coming up the Hollow. They come down the Hollow like racing drivers. It is a dangerous road to pull out anywhere up there. We don't want anymore bloody houses, leave our countryside alone!!!!

Kind regards
