Description

Hemsley's Meadow is a flat area of grass overlooked from the east by house frontages. There are no facilities or features other than the open meadow and some existing vegetation along its boundaries. Finches Field is a playing field with a recently opened Slaugham Council community centre and car park. The western part of Finches Field, also used as playing fields is outside of MSDC ownership, with no visible or physical boundary to separate the two different land owner ownerships
