Reasons for comment:
Comments:	It was utterly devastating when the woodland at the end of Hanlye lane was first demolished for housing. Now you want to build in more green space? We're running out of animal habitats to build on. Stop it. This is ridiculous! There is no infrastructure for this. Ardingly reservoir is permanently empty (hose ban only lifted a couple of weeks ago!!) and the schools and doctors are at overflow levels. No no no no no.

Kind regards
