Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This large extension is going to invade our privacy. The amended plans received 8/9/26 to show the addition of a 2.8m deep raised patio, with a glazed 1.1m high balustrade, across the rear with steps to access the lower back garden only adds to my concerns. Are we expected to accept a lack of privacy with this new plan? If the answer is yes, I expect the client to replace all the boundary fencing which is their responsibility (according to my deeds) with enough height to allow us not to be overlooked on our own patio and garden.

Kind regards
