

Hi Stefan

Apologies for the delay. The meter boxes are an unfortunate addition to the façade of the building but would appear to be an unavoidable result of the proposed residential conversion. Although there will be some adverse impact on the appearance of Lorimer House, this will be relatively minor, and I would not consider that a refusal on these grounds alone could be substantiated.

Thanks,

Emily