Reasons for comment:
Comments:	What is the are deliveries to the site going to look like and at what time ,??large vehicles reversing ,bleeping early hours !! Also as the new development will be at the top of a hill next to the pub I believe this will be overbearing,and out off character with the row of cottages that line brookhill road ,and located next to a very small path ,access to the flats will also be challenging with the volume of traffic that uses Brookhill Road ,

Kind regards
