Hello Rachel

Unfortunately, the website appears to be down as I'm getting this message when I try to download the documents for the above application.

Service Unavailable

The server is temporarily unable to service your request due to maintenance downtime or capacity problems. Please try again later.

I can see that there are landscape and lighting details, so I'd be really grateful if you might be able to send these to me by email if that's possible?

With many thanks

Best wishes
