Reasons for comment:
Comments:	West Hoathly/Dunnings Road is already a nightmare with passing traffic and parked cars on the corner by the entrance to the children's play park. It becomes even more of a nightmare when parents are trying to cross the road, with their children to get to school. I can only see this will get worse with more passing traffic to these house and using the road as parking. New builds are not known for their parking arrangements. With the two nurseries opposite and very awkward junctions to get out for them this could also cause problems. Not only will it be an eye sore on the edge of Standen but also modify the natural look of the surrounding area too.

Kind regards
