Dear Mr Wheatley

Thank you for supplying the drawings. I note your site plan has 1:50 scale on the top, but nothing measurable. 1:50 translates roughly 1 inch equates 1 meter. Can I presume the top of the hardstanding is about 7 meters wide?

Many thanks

Good afternoon Christine,

Please see attached new documents from the points mentioned within the incomplete application email.

1. Please provide a Location Plan, to scale (typically 1:1250 or 1:2500) with the area of the site outlined in red. Land registry maps are not acceptable due to copyright.

(Attached)

2. Please provide a Block Plan, to scale, (typically 1:200 or 1:500) with the area of proposed indicated with hatched lines or shading. Please notes that any plan provided need to be measurable to scale. The block plan submitted was sent as a jpg image which cannot be measured to scale.

(Attached)

3. Please note that the submitted site plan showing the area of hardstanding was not drawn to a recognised scale (ie: 1:50, 1:100. 1:200). It was also sent as a jpg image which cannot be measured to scale. Drawings should be sent in a format which can be measured to scale, such as pdf.

(Attached)

Please advise if more or further information is required.

Thank you for your assistance in moving this forward.

Kind regards,
Billy
