Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I have been a coach at East Grinstead Hockey Club for many years. Most of the children who join the club come from Private Schools. This is due mainly to the lack of facilities available at State schools. I believe that hockey is a more inclusive team sport than football or Rugby mainly because size is largely irrelevant. You are far less likely to suffer from injuries and we find that children are more likely to continue playing into adulthood. The facilities at Sackville will be a huge benefit to the community. I imagine that they will be able to generate revenue from renting it out when not in use.

Kind regards
