This architectural floor plan depicts a building layout with several rooms and a central circulation area. The plan is oriented with North at the top, as indicated by the North arrow in the bottom right corner. The building's footprint is roughly rectangular, with a central corridor and staircase area. The rooms are arranged around this central area, with varying sizes and shapes. The plan includes detailed wall lines, door swings, and a central staircase. The rooms are labeled with numbers 1 through 10, and the central area is labeled 'STAIRS'. The plan also shows a 'NORTH' arrow and a scale bar.

A simple line drawing of a house. The house has a gabled roof with a wide overhang. The front facade features two large doors, each filled with vertical slats, suggesting a garage or a screen door. The house is supported by a few small, simple legs or pillars. The entire drawing is composed of black outlines on a white background.

A line drawing of a simple house. The house has a triangular roof with a small overhang at the top. The main body of the house is a rectangle. The drawing is composed of black outlines on a white background.

A simple line drawing of a house. The house has a triangular roof with a double-line outline, suggesting a gable or a slightly thick roof. The base of the house is a rectangle, also outlined with a double line. The entire drawing is composed of black lines on a white background.
