Hello Anna,

Further to our tel. call earlier today, please would it be possible to attend site next week, as the owners will be on hand then to show you around and in case of any queries they can help with.

They have suggested coming mid to late morning (10- 11.30) or early afternoon (12.30 – 2pm) when there will be a good level of activity going on rather than during a break in sessions or later when it will be much quieter.

The owners of the business are flexible on days next week – please let me know what would suit best and in terms of approximate arrival time and I can complete the arrangements.

Thanks very much

Kind regards,

Chris
