TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE)
(ENGLAND) ORDER 2015

REFUSAL

REFERENCE: DM/25/0886

DESCRIPTION: RETROSPECTIVE PLANNING APPLICATION FOR THE PARTIAL CHANGE OF USE OF LAND TO RESIDENTIAL GARDEN AREA.

LOCATION: SOUTH MEADOW COTTAGE, BRANTRIDGE LANE,
STAPLEFIELD, HAYWARDS HEATH

DECISION DATE: 30 JUN 2025

CASE OFFICER: ANDREW CLARKE - ANDREW.CLARKE@MIDSUSSEX.GOV.UK

The Council hereby notify you that they REFUSE to permit the above development as shown in the submitted application and plans.

The reasons for the Council's decision are:-

1. The change of use, by virtue of its scale, siting and appearance would cause harm to the openness, character and appearance of the countryside and High Weald National Landscape in which it lies. Furthermore, it would cause less than substantial harm to the setting of the listed building at Tyes Place, for which there are no public benefits that outweigh the identified harm, contrary to policies DP12, DP16, DP26 and DP34 of the Mid Sussex District Plan, policy AS3 of the Ansty, Staplefield and Brook Street Neighbourhood Plan and paragraphs 212 - 215 of the National Planning Policy Framework

INFORMATIVES

1. In accordance with Article 35 of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015, the Local Planning Authority has acted positively and proactively in determining this application by identifying matters of concern with the proposal and discussing those with the Applicant. However, the issues are so fundamental to the proposal that it has not been possible to negotiate a satisfactory way forward and due to the harm which has been clearly identified within the reason(s) for the refusal, approval has not been possible.
2. The application relates to development that has already taken place and as just constitutes a breach of planning control where formal enforcement action to remedy the breach of planning control is likely to be considered expedient.

Human Rights Implications

The planning application has been considered in light of statute and case law and any interference with an individual's human rights is considered to be proportionate to the aims sought to be realised.

RECOUZ

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Notes for Applicants

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your Local Planning Authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.

However, if

- (i) this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice; or
- (ii) an enforcement notice is subsequently served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within:
 - 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or
 - within 6 months (12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>.

If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.uk.
