North – Neighbouring site with an unobscured glazed side elevation window.

South – Existing hipped element to the roof which is reflected at the neighbouring dwelling.
Quite a uniform appearance at present.

East – Rear garden with mature plantation to the rear of the site.

West – Existing rear elevation with a rear box projection coming out of the roof slope.

Streetscene – Estate style dwellings typically constructed of brick exterior. Properties appear to have been altered and extended through conservatories to side and rear.
