Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I would like to support this planning application. As a single mum of two living in a nearby town, I've always been very fond of Ansty. Both my children are members of the sports clubs in Ansty and we've always found it to be a welcoming and friendly community. From looking at the revised plans, I think this is a well-designed development that fits in nicely with the new homes that are already there. It doesn't feel over the top and seems like a sensible way for the village to grow.

I also think it's important that villages like Ansty have the opportunity to welcome new families. Good-quality homes give people the chance to become part of established communities, helping to support local schools, clubs and village life. As someone whose family has enjoyed spending time in Ansty, I think it's lovely that more people will have the opportunity to call it home.

Overall, I believe this is a thoughtful proposal that would be a positive addition to the village, and I hope it is given planning permission.

Kind regards
