Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I've been visiting Saint Hill many times over the years and they do a lot of good work for the local area and beyond. Their events are fantastic and make generous contributions to local and wider charities.

It's only natural that their good works will expand and thus a larger car park makes sense.

It's sometimes a drag parking on the field especially at big events and the ground is muddy - so this is a good idea.

Kind regards
