Hi Stefan

Comments on the above discharge of condition application.

The submitted details of the external door and sliding doors are acceptable, although see below with respect to the second photograph of the 'sliding doors' which appears to be incorrectly annotated, and should be corrected.

We do not have details of the new windows to the left side elevation (as per approved plans). There is a second photograph which is annotated 'proposed sliding doors' which actually appears to show windows, but these do not accord with approved drawing and we have no elevational or sectional drawings.

The condition cannot therefore be discharged at present.

Thanks

Emily
