PLANNING (LISTED BUILDING AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE)
(ENGLAND) ORDER 2015

REFUSAL

REFERENCE: DM/24/2872

DESCRIPTION: PROPOSED THREE CONSERVATION ROOFLIGHTS.

LOCATION: THE WHITE HARTE INN, SOUTH STREET, CUCKFIELD,
HAYWARDS HEATH

DECISION DATE: 31 JAN 2025

CASE OFFICER: CATHERINE CARDIN -
CATHERINE.CARDIN@MIDSUSSEX.GOV.UK

The Council hereby REFUSE LISTED BUILDING CONSENT for the above works as shown on the submitted application and plans, for the following reasons:-

1. The proposed rooflights would affect the form and fabric of the property's timber framing by requiring removal of sections of original timber, detrimentally affecting the architectural interest of the building and the integrity and completeness of the original frame. In addition, they would add visual clutter to a prominent and attractive rear roofslope, and are therefore considered to be harmful and inappropriate. This harm is identified as less than substantial, at the mid range of the scale, and there are no public benefits identified that would outweigh the identified harm. The proposal is therefore considered to be contrary to policy DP34 of the Mid Sussex District Plan, the Mid Sussex Design Guide SPD and the relevant policies of the National Planning Policy Framework.

INFORMATIVES

1. In accordance with Article 35 of the Town and Country Planning (General Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015, the Local Planning Authority has acted positively and proactively in determining this application by identifying matters of concern with the proposal and determining the application within a timely manner, clearly setting out the reason(s) for refusal, thereby allowing the Applicant the opportunity to consider the harm caused and whether or not it can be remedied as part of a revised scheme. The Local Planning Authority is willing to provide pre-application advice and advise on the best course of action in respect of any future application for a revised development.

Human Rights Implications

The planning application has been considered in light of statute and case law and any interference with an individual's human rights is considered to be proportionate to the aims sought to be realised.

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Notes for Applicants

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your Local Planning Authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.

However, if

- (i) this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice; or
- (ii) an enforcement notice is subsequently served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within:
 - 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or
 - within 12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.uk.
