Subject: Lighting in Horsted Keynes

Dear Katherine,

I am writing as the county councillor for Lindfield and the High Weald which includes Horsted Keynes. Horsted Keynes parish council passed a resolution for dark skies. I am concerned that a new development on the sight of the old St Stephen's Church off Hamsland has been granted the right to have street lighting. I would therefore like to join the parish and the parishioners who have asked for this to be removed so that there is a consistent dark skies policy over all the village.

Regards

Cavan Wood
