Commenter Type: Neighbour or general public

Stance: Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application

Reasons for comment:

Comments: I am fully supportive of the outline application for the proposed nine self-build dwellings on this site. The plot is set back from the road and is not visible from the street; it also has its own access point with appropriate visibility, ensuring there will be no impact on neighbouring properties during construction or once completed. Additionally, the location benefits from convenient public transport links, with bus stops situated at the end of the access road.

There is a significant demand and need for developments of this nature within the area, and this location is well suited to provide additional housing to address current demands.

Kind regards
