Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Padel is the fastest growing sport in the country, and a great fun way to keep fit and make new friends. Courts and their accessibility is limited in Mid Sussex, with most not served by public transport. Courts available near the centre of Burgess Hill would allow locals to play the sport without the need to drive, along with it being accessible by rail for those further afield. As a keen player, any new courts would help to stabilise - or even bring down - the price to play in the area, also making the sport more appealing to those who may not be able to afford current court rates.

Kind regards
