I understand that the comments I made a few days ago through your planning register regarding the above planning application did not submit to you correctly therefore I am repeating my information and comments below for your consideration.

My comments:-

The building is too high and it is an unattractive design which is not sympathetic to the buildings around it. The site is a central point of Hassocks village and as such the new building needs to be attractive and an asset to the village. Although I am in favour of the current ugly site being redeveloped, the design of the new building needs to be thought out more carefully.
