

rear elevation
south

plain concrete roof tiles to match existing single ply membrane flat roof to dormer
plain concrete tile hanging to gable end + dormer cheeks UPVC fenestration to match existing

section 2-2

| notes + revisions |            |                                                                                   |  | client + project               |  | title                             |  | scale        | number     |
|-------------------|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--------------------------------|--|-----------------------------------|--|--------------|------------|
| A                 | 23.04.2025 | Rear extension (covered by separate Householder Application) removed for clarity. |  | Mr. J. Beeby & Mr. L. Trenaman |  |                                   |  | 1 : 100 @ A3 | 2543.PL07A |
|                   |            |                                                                                   |  | 42 Stanford Avenue             |  | Proposed Rear Elevation + Section |  | 20.03.2025   | PLANNING   |
|                   |            |                                                                                   |  | Hassocks                       |  |                                   |  |              |            |