Reasons for comment:

Comments:	Marlow House has been sympathetically maintained and is a credit to the High Street, which we are all very proud to live in. The applicants should be applauded for the amazing work to the rear of the property. This is a great example of works that not only ensure the continuing wellbeing of a significantly important historic property but allows the owners to enhance the property with a wonderful modern structure. Perhaps in 200 years the Planning Officer of the time will regard this part of the property as equally
