Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

-The submitted details set out that the proposal would be characterised by external materials similar in appearance to those used in the existing dwelling. The proposed single storey rear extension would replace an existing single storey conservatory and it would be of a similar scale to the existing extension. The current two-storey side extension is set down from the ridge and eaves of the existing dwelling so as to appear visually subordinate. Whilst it does extend beyond the principal elevation this by a modest amount which would not harm the character of the site. The current scheme would extend the dwelling the total width of the site at first-floor level, which would have an unsatisfactorily terracing impact on the character of the site. As such whilst the majority of the extension could be considered to be acceptable I would recommend reducing the width so as to set it away from the boundary of the site. The proposed dormer to the front is considered to be of an appropriately modest scale which would be subordinate to the roof slope and would be set above the eaves and below the ridge. The majority of the front roof slope would also remain visible.

Taking into account the above and subject to the suggested alterations, it is my informal opinion the proposal could comply with policy DP26 of the Mid Sussex District Plan, policy ASW14 of the AWNP and principles DG49, DG50 and DG52 of the Mid Sussex Design Guide SPD.

-Arboricultural Impact Assessment and Arboricultural Method Statement should be submitted with the application to demonstrate tree protection measures.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No
