Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This is such a completely unsuitable place to build this large amount of houses particularly a block of flats! The road is narrow and cars speed down past Standen and despite asking for the paths to be cleared back they are still only one person wide. Parking on the road from the pub at weekends is bad enough without many more cars. The fields are home to deer, tawny owls, woodpeckers and many other species. Combe Hill Road opposite is probably the most prestigious road in East Grinstead. It's offensive to lower the prices of these properties by building housing association flats etc. Please do not allow this.

Kind regards
