Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Another housing estate for the infrastructure of an already struggling town to deal with. What a fantastic idea! (please note this is sarcasm) There's already new developments in nearby Hassocks. How long before we have no green space left?

The council are already doing a brilliant job of pulling the town centre apart. Then you all sit behind your desks wondering why shops are shutting and people go elsewhere. It's about time you thought long and hard on the long term issues rather than getting distracted by the pound signs.
