

Contamination Statement – Floran Farm

Previous Uses of the Site

The main building has been used as classic car storage on the ground floor, with general storage above. The main building also contains two existing residential units.

The structures to be removed are used for on-site storage.

The expanse of hardstanding has been used for the storage of vehicles.

Surveys

No surveys have been undertaken for the site.

Remediation

Details of remediation, and its verification can be secured by Condition.