

Planning permission to turn the rear of the garage to living space, The front part will still look like a garage and will be used for storage. We can fit three cars on our drive so don't use the garage so want to use this as living space . The garage will have no different look from the front as we will still have the garage door. The only difference from the side will be the door into the garage to access living space