Description of the Proposal

Please note in regard to:

- Fire Statements - From 1 August 2021, planning applications for buildings of over 18 metres (or 7 stories) tall containing more than one dwelling will require a 'Fire Statement' for the application to be considered valid. There are some exemptions. View government planning guidance on fire statements or access the fire statement template and guidance.
- Permission In Principle - If you are applying for Technical Details Consent on a site that has been granted Permission In Principle, please include the relevant details in the description below.
- Public Service Infrastructure - From 1 August 2021, applications for certain public service infrastructure developments will be eligible for faster determination timeframes. See help for further details or view government planning guidance on determination periods.

Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

Installation of a domestic ground-mounted solar photovoltaic (PV) array along the rear boundary of the property. The system comprises 34 × 515 W solar panels arranged in a single row on a low-profile mounting frame, set on a Type 1 MOT sub-base. The maximum height at the rear of the array is approximately 350 mm, sloping slightly down towards the front.

The array includes panel optimisers and a battery storage system to maximise on-site electricity use. The installation is located to minimise visual impact, preserve neighbour amenity, and maintain the character of the surrounding area. No alterations to the dwelling or existing landscape features are required, and all works will be contained within the residential curtilage.

The development aims to generate renewable energy for domestic consumption, reducing reliance on grid electricity and contributing to the household's sustainability objectives.

There is a nearby residential property where a ground-mounted solar PV array comprising 61 panels has been installed. This demonstrates that the principle of a domestic solar array in a similar setting has been accepted within the local area. The proposed development is smaller in scale (34 panels) and low-profile, positioned well away (~100 m) from existing structures, and will not result in any additional visual or amenity impacts. Therefore, the proposal is consistent with established local precedent for domestic renewable energy installations. This was approved by Mid Sussex District Council Planning under Application number: DM/23/2837

Has the work or change of use already started?

Existing Use

Please describe the current use of the site

The proposed development is located immediately adjacent to the residential curtilage, within a privately owned field used for personal equestrian purposes. The land contains existing equestrian facilities, including stables, a barn, and an exercise arena, and is maintained for grazing and training of horses. There are no commercial operations on the site, and the proposed area for the solar array is otherwise open land within the applicant's ownership.

Is the site currently vacant?

Other

Other (please specify):
Type 1 MOT sub-base

Existing materials and finishes:
Cleared brambles and thicket on a soil base

Proposed materials and finishes:
The solar array will be mounted on a low-profile frame supported by a Type 1 MOT sub-base. This base consists of compacted crushed stone, providing a stable, durable, and permeable surface to support the array. The base will follow the natural ground levels and will not require permanent hard surfacing or concrete foundations, minimising visual and environmental impact. The colour and texture of the compacted stone will blend with the surrounding field and equestrian setting. The proposed solar array will use the following materials: • Solar Panels: 34 × 515 W tempered glass photovoltaic panels with dark aluminium frames. Panels are non-reflective and oriented in a single row to minimise visual impact. • Mounting Frame: Galvanised steel or aluminium low-profile frame. The frame will be finished in a muted, non-reflective colour to blend with the surroundings. • Battery Storage: External weatherproof battery enclosure in a neutral colour, positioned adjacent to the array to minimise visual intrusion. • Cabling and Panel Optimisers: All electrical cabling will be routed within protective conduit or integrated into the rear of the panels, with optimisers mounted discretely. The materials are selected to be low-maintenance, durable, and sympathetic to the existing equestrian setting, ensuring the array integrates naturally into the landscape.

Biodiversity and Geological Conservation

Is there a reasonable likelihood of the following being affected adversely or conserved and enhanced within the application site, or on land adjacent to or near the application site?

To assist in answering this question correctly, please refer to the help text which provides guidance on determining if any important biodiversity or geological conservation features may be present or nearby; and whether they are likely to be affected by the proposals.

a) Protected and priority species

- ☐ Yes, on the development site
☐ Yes, on land adjacent to or near the proposed development
☒ No

b) Designated sites, important habitats or other biodiversity features

- ☐ Yes, on the development site
☐ Yes, on land adjacent to or near the proposed development
☒ No

c) Features of geological conservation importance

Supporting information requirements

Where a development proposal is likely to affect features of biodiversity or geological conservation interest, you will need to submit, with the application, sufficient information and assessments to allow the local planning authority to determine the proposal.

Failure to submit all information required will result in your application being deemed invalid. It will not be considered valid until all information required by the local planning authority has been submitted.

Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:

Over 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

The proposed development involves the installation of a ground-mounted solar array on previously developed domestic equestrian land immediately outside the residential curtilage. The site is currently used for personal horse keeping and contains existing equestrian infrastructure, including stables, a barn, and an exercise arena. The development is minor in scale, with a low-profile array installed on a Type 1 MOT base. No significant vegetation, habitat, or protected ecological features will be affected, and the works will not result in any loss of biodiversity or natural habitat. Given the small-scale, low-impact nature of the proposal and the existing use of the land, the development does not trigger the requirements for Biodiversity Net Gain under current local or national planning policy. The site will continue to provide the same grazing and equestrian habitat as at present, and no compensatory ecological measures are required.

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.
