Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I live above this property. We are already having significant problems with mould, noise from salon speakers which are in the ceiling and play loudly through our floor, we have also just lost our garden to the salon and we're threatened with eviction unless we accepted this and has a rental price increase on our flat as a result. Now without any communication with us we're going to have to endure more noise and work making living here even more of a challenge. Daria whom lives with me is here under homes for Ukraine scheme and I am her sponsor. She is here in the country alone as a result of fleeing the war. While I'm trying to provide a safe and comfortable place for her to live she has had to endure the issues listed above.

No one even attempted to communicate with us on this matter the same as the garden. Which is the worst part.

Kind regards
