Reasons for comment:

Comments: At what point is overdevelopment of mid sussex going to be addressed? Local villages and small towns are being destroyed, resources totally over stretched inc doctors and schools, our precious countryside being taken over by overpriced developments, walstead one still has properties for sale... please object there are brownfield sites, empty properties, more suitable areas etc all developers care about is destroying rural england for a big profit, we wont be able to reverse this disastrous policy

Kind regards
