Reasons for comment:
Comments:	We consider this to be over-development for the road. The building of an additional property in an existing properties driveway is incongruent with the rest of the road. The planned dwelling would put too much pressure on on-street parking as it only has a single parking space. The planned dwelling would also give us privacy concerns as it faces our own home and is approximately 30m closer than the property at 3 Park View Gardens.

Kind regards
