Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Initially comments were that a replacement outbuilding if sited in the same position as the existing would not be considered to front either a highway or open space and therefore would benefit from permitted development rights. However, when queried it was clarified that any new / extended outbuilding with a cubic content of more than 10m³ would require planning permission, in accordance with the Lindfield Conservation Area Article 4 (2) Direction 1995.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?
E.g. All the land is owned by a single individual

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Is the land owned by multiple individuals, or has agricultural tenants where the details of all individuals are known by the Applicant?
E.g. The land is owned by 2 people and the applicant can provide details of those owners.

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Is the land owned by multiple individuals, or has agricultural tenants where the details of any individuals are known by the Applicant?
E.g. The land is owned by 2 people and the applicant can provide details of 1 of those owners.

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate D

I certify/ The applicant certifies that:

- Certificate A cannot be issued for this application
- All reasonable steps have been taken to find out the names and addresses of everyone else who, on the day 21 days before the date of this application, was the owner* and/or agricultural tenant of any part of the land to which this application relates, but I have/ the applicant has been unable to do so.

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural tenant" has the meaning given in section 65(8) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990

The steps taken were:

Applicant contacted Mid Sussex District Council Parking Services Manager 31 March 2026, who stated the land did not fall within their control. Applicant contacted WSCC Land Charges Team on 18th May 2026, Reference DPRCE-3-181697, and was informed that the land is not owned or maintained by them.
Applicant had an email exchange on 22 and 23 June 2026 with the Clerk's office of Lindfield Parish Council who confirmed that it does not fall under ownership of the Parish Council.
Applicant carried out a Land Registry search which returned ownership of their property, nothing more.

Notice of the application has been published in the following newspaper (circulating in the area where the land is situated)
