Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I'm shocked that it's even a consideration to build new homes off of West Hoathly Road. Not only is this green space that's home to wildlife, trees, greenery etc, the town cannot cope with the residents it already has, without 42+ more families. I think if this planning application is given the green light, this will be the start of much more building in green spaces within East Grinstead.

Kind regards
